Wreckage of Jet With 28 Aboard Sighted on Peak

By JOHN B. LENGEL

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Wreckage of an airliner that hit a mountain peak in a storm last night was found this morning, Sheriff's deputies said. The plane was about 16 miles southwest of Las Vegas near the railroad community of Phoenix.

Searchers spotted the wreckage shortly after dawn.

Helicopters flew to the scene and began flying bodies to a lower level.

Snowstorm in SW, Drought in Two Areas

CHICAGO (AP)—A crippling snowstorm and unaccustomed cold swept the Southwest today, and a massive rain front moved deeply into the Midwest and Eastern drought regions.

The wintry onslaught in the West coated Nevada and Arizona with snow. Las Vegas had a rare white mantle 3 inches deep. At Flagstaff, Ariz., there was 10 inches of snow, and cold winds heaped this into drifts.

The Weather Bureau said that the cold air infiltrated the southern Arizona citrus orchard belt, causing frost in many places. Phoenix, Ariz., had a low of 35.

The Western storm was part of a vast precipitation belt which extended from Maine to California. East of the Rockies, principally rain, but some freezing rain was reported in the northern Great Lakes region.

Indianapolis, Ind., had a 1-inch rainfall early today. Eastern and central Kansas were getting a thorough soaking from heavy, steady rains which started Sunday and continued today. Gannett got 5.45 inches, Paola 5.11, and Topeka 4.69 since the downpour started.

Last night damage had been done, however, during the six-week drought, and drought conditions were still serious in the South and East.

Communities renewed their effort to gain federal emergency relief funds, farmers hauled water to livestock, city officials planned alternate water supplies and farmers watched their winter crop wilt.

But in the Northwest, snow was piled three feet deep in spots and temperatures plummeted below zero.

Officials closed U.S. 160 over Wolf Creek Pass in southwestern Colorado and Independence Pass in the central portion as snow piled up three feet deep. Ten inches of snow fell in Aspen.

In Wyoming, light snow continued to fall and highways were reported slick and dangerous.

The temperature dropped to 25 below zero in West Yellowstone, Montana's traditional icebox. It was 4 below in Butte.

A 16-inch snow stalled traffic near Broadus, Mont.

Snow fell in the mountains of western New Mexico, and Zuni reported a 4-inch fall. Northern Arizona and the mountains of southern Arizona were hit by snowfalls.

The Midwest drought abated somewhat after a day of substantial rainfalls. The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted a sharp temperature decrease as a cold front moved toward the heart of the nation.

Tolber Corp. Products Discussed

Clyde Fouse, local manager of The Tolber Corporation, told Hope Rotarians, at the noon luncheon Friday, about his company and the product manufactured at the Hope plant.

"This material is a member of the Vinyl family, of which there are many, and can be adapted to a variety of uses," said Mr. Fouse.

He said that one of the earlier and most practical uses of this material was during World War II and since that time its use has multiplied many times and with present day research many additional uses can be expected within the next few years.

The local plant is a subsidiary of the Michigan Chrome and Chemical Company of Detroit, Michigan, and has been operating in Hope since December, 1963. Although small, in comparison to the number of employees with some other local plants, it is a most welcome addition to Hope's growing industrial family, and local Rotarians were vividly impressed with the future possibilities of this plant.

Guests at the luncheon were Ben Harding, of Prescott, Tom Kendall and Roy Hogan of De Queen and Carter Sutton, Hope.

Today Marks Opening of Seal Drive

Today, marks the opening of the 58th annual Christmas Seal Campaign in Hempstead County when the "silent ambassadors" of the county tuberculosis association are mailed to every home.

"The concern and support of every resident of this county are our goals," said Mr. J. D. (Dick) Turnage, Christmas Seal Chairman. "The downward trend of active tuberculosis cases has stopped and Arkansas now ranks third in deaths from TB. Our aim is to see the eventual eradication of tuberculosis in Arkansas, but this is possible only through the support of the people who use Christmas Seals."

"In our county there were 6 cases reported. These people are our neighbors and friends," said Mr. Turnage. "We helped them because we used Christmas Seals through their once-a-year campaign, the only support given to this organization."

African Rebels 'to Execute U.S. Missionary

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Dr. Paul Carlson, an American medical missionary who refused to abandon his Congolese patients behind rebel lines, is to be executed in Stanleyville today, a rebel broadcast announced.

The rebels charged Carlson, 36, was a major in the U.S. armed forces.

(In Washington the Pentagon said Stanley is not a military man.)

U.S. Embassy officials in Leopoldville said Carlson, 36, belonged to the Protestant mission Evangelique de L'Ubangi which has its headquarters at the Covenant World Mission in Chicago.

They said Carlson's only military experience was a two-year hitch in the Navy between 1946 and 1948.

Carlson was captured by the rebels on Sept. 21 at Yakoma, north of Stanleyville on the Congo's border with the Central African Republic. He had radioed earlier that he intended to stay behind to treat sick and wounded.

Christophe Gbenye, self-proclaimed president of the Communist-backed "Congolese Peoples' Republic" in Stanleyville, announced last month that Carlson was being held in the rebel capital, awaiting trial.

In Chicago, Dr. Arden Almquist, executive secretary of Covenant World Missions, said Carlson "definitely is not a spy."

"Part of his difficulty may be that we have radio communication between our various mission stations and we have transmitters," he said.

"It's possible the use of the transmitters or rebel knowledge of that fact that he has one may be interpreted by them to mean that he is spying."

Carlson is the first white foreigner rebel leaders have ordered executed.

Thousands of Congolese have been murdered. Central government troops who recaptured Kindu, capital of Maniema Province, found the foot of a monument to the late Patrice Lumumba, the Congo's extreme left premier blackened and cracked by heat where rebels had burned hundreds of Congolese alive.

Messages filtering out of Stanleyville say batches of Congolese are killed there each day at the foot of a monument to Lumumba.

More than 1,000 foreigners are still in the rebel zone, including more than 60 Americans.

Most of the trapped Americans are missionaries or teachers at Stanleyville's Protestant University. Five Americans from the U.S. consulate in Stanleyville have been held more than two months.

The rebels hoped to pressure the United States, Belgium and other Western nations into dropping support of Premier Moïse Tshombe.

2 Persons Killed in 2-Car Wreck Near City Limits

Two persons were killed early Sunday in a two car accident on Highway 29, just north of the Hope City limits. The dead are Mrs. Lena Aslin, 46, of Hope and Mrs. Lynda Rowe Hurlgen, 24, of Texarkana.

State Policeman Guy Downing said the car driven by Mrs. Aslin, who was alone and on her way home to Oakhaven from early church services, skidded on wet pavement on a curve, slipped sideways directly into the path of a car driven by Quentin Hurlgen, 25, husband of the dead woman.

Mrs. Hurlgen was dead on arrival at a local hospital where she was taken by an Oakcrest ambulance. Mr. Hurlgen was treated at a local hospital for minor injuries and released. The parents of Mrs. Hurlgen, Mr. and Mrs. Clayborne Rowe, were driving directly behind their daughter's car and witnessed the accident. Mrs. Rowe was hospitalized suffering from shock.

Mrs. Aslin was taken to a local hospital by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance where she was examined and rushed to a specialist at Shreveport. She sustained head and chest injuries and died shortly after 2 p.m. Sunday.

Safety Rules Program at Yerger High
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (Special)—Feats of magic will lend their fascination to rules of traffic safety in a "Safety Magic" show to be presented at Yeager High School, in Hope, Arkansas, on November 20.

The show will feature Traffic Sgt. Carl S. Pike, currently on leave from the Kent County Sheriff's Department in Grand Rapids, Mich. The sergeant is now on a nationwide tour under sponsorship of American Trucking Associations, Washington, D. C. While in Hope, Sgt. Pike's local sponsors are the Arkansas State Police and the Arkansas Bus & Truck Association. Sgt. A. E. Eason of the Safety Education Division of the Arkansas State Police serves as general coordinator.

Sgt. Pike, a professional magician prior to entering police work, combines his knowledge of magic with a keen sense of humor and experience gained as a traffic officer to get across his message of traffic safety to high school pupils.

In the show, Sgt. Pike, makes safety banners appear out of nowhere, colorful scarfs pop up from an empty purse, and an apparently endless stream of water, pour from a small jug. These are just a few of Sgt. Pike's tricks, each illustrating an important traffic safety rule.

These HANDS of MINE

Whether building a life or a skyscraper is involved, a clear understanding of the project is necessary... a plan must be in mind. The man who starts to raise a family without first considering his earning power, cost involved and the necessity for God's help — faces serious difficulty. To correctly raise a building an architect, blueprint and a builder are essential. To properly build a man — prayer, Bible reading, Sunday school and church attendance are good tools to work with. To calculate the pitch a roof must be is easy but without God's help, to determine the worth of a young life is impossible. Architects design houses. Builders put them together. But only God can build a man out of a boy. The church, through these firm hands of mine, pictures to humanity the world's greatest designer... Jesus the Christ. World builders could not get along very well without Him. He has never poured a bad foundation, nor laid a sill out of level, nor raised a wall off plum. "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it," Psalms 127:1.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

West Germans Want to Deal With Red China

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany wants to renew official contacts with Red China in the spring, a top official of the Bonn government reports. An exchange of trade missions could result, but the chief goal is political.

Talks between the two governments would not take place until Chancellor Ludwig Erhard explained his position to President Johnson, the official said.

"Now that the American elections are over, we can move ahead in our dealings with Red China," he added.

West Germany and Red China signed a one-year trade agreement in 1957, but it was not renewed. German and Chinese officials held preliminary talks earlier this year. The Chinese Communists said then they were willing to sign a new trade agreement with West Germany providing for an exchange of trade missions and including a clause stating that West Berlin is considered economically and politically part of West Germany.

West Germany already has trade agreements containing such a clause with the Communist governments of Poland, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria. This has undermined the Soviet and East German position that Germany is divided into three separate units — East and West Germany and West Berlin.

Some West German officials have said an exchange of trade missions between Bonn and Peking would have little trade significance but would be politically important.

These officials feel it would be an overture to France that would not get Bonn into much trouble with the United States. France established diplomatic relations with Peking last summer and reportedly has been pressuring West Germany to follow suit.

More important for the Bonn government, however, exchange of trade missions was seen as a step to deepen the split between Red China and East Germany.

The East Germans have repeatedly accused Peking of ignoring their interests.

Snowstorm in SW, Drought in Two Areas

CHICAGO (AP)—A crippling snowstorm and unaccustomed cold swept the Southwest today, and a massive rain front moved deeply into the Midwest and Eastern drought regions.

The wintry onslaught in the West coated Nevada and Arizona with snow. Las Vegas had a rare white mantle 3 inches deep. At Flagstaff, Ariz., there was 10 inches of snow, and cold winds heaped this into drifts.

The Weather Bureau said that the cold air infiltrated the southern Arizona citrus orchard belt, causing frost in many places. Phoenix, Ariz., had a low of 35.

The Western storm was part of a vast precipitation belt which extended from Maine to California. East of the Rockies, principally rain, but some freezing rain was reported in the northern Great Lakes region.

Indianapolis, Ind., had a 1-inch rainfall early today. Eastern and central Kansas were getting a thorough soaking from heavy, steady rains which started Sunday and continued today. Garnett got 5.45 inches, Paola 5.11, and Topeka 4.69 since the downpour started.

Lasting damage had been done, however, during the six-week drought, and drought conditions were still serious in the South and East.

Communities renewed their effort to gain federal emergency relief funds, farmers hauled water to livestock, city officials planned alternate water supplies and farmers watched their winter crop wilt.

But in the Northwest, snow was piled three feet deep in spots and temperatures plummeted below zero.

Officials closed U.S. 160 over Wolf Creek Pass in southwestern Colorado and Independence Pass in the central portion as snow piled up three feet deep. Ten inches of snow fell in Aspen.

In Wyoming, light snow continued to fall and highways were reported slick and dangerous.

The temperature dropped to 25 below zero in West Yellowstone, Montana's traditional icebox. It was 4 below in Butte.

A 16-inch snow stalled traffic near Broadus, Mont.

Snow fell in the mountains of western New Mexico, and Zuni reported a 4-inch fall. Northern Arizona and the mountains of southern Arizona were hit by snowfalls.

The Midwest drought abated somewhat after a day of substantial rainfalls. The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted a sharp temperature decrease as a cold front moved toward the heart of the nation.

Tolber Corp. Products Discussed

Clyde Fouse, local manager of The Tolber Corporation, told Hope Rotarians, at the noon luncheon Friday, about his Company and the product manufactured at the Hope plant.

"This material is a member of the Vinyl family, of which there are many, and can be adapted to a variety of uses," said Mr. Fouse.

He said that one of the earlier and most practical uses of this material was during World War II and since that time its use has multiplied many times and with present day research many additional uses can be expected within the next few years.

The local plant is a subsidiary of the Michigan Chrome and Chemical Company of Detroit, Michigan, and has been operating in Hope since December, 1963. Although small, in comparison to the number of employees with some other local plants, it is a most welcome addition to Hope's growing industrial family, and local Rotarians were vividly impressed with the future possibilities of this plant.

Guests at the luncheon were Ben Harding, of Prescott, Tom Kendall and Roy Hogan of De Queen and Carter Sutton, Hope.

Today Marks Opening of Seal Drive

Today, marks the opening of the 58th annual Christmas Seal Campaign in Hempstead County when the "silent ambassadors" of the county tuberculosis association are mailed to every home.

"The concern and support of every resident of this county are our goals," said Mr. J. D. (Dick) Turnage, Christmas Seal Chairman. "The downward trend of active tuberculosis cases has stopped and Arkansas now ranks third in deaths from TB. Our aim is to see the eventual eradication of tuberculosis in Arkansas, but this is possible only through the support of the people who use Christmas Seals."

"In our county there were 6 cases reported. These people are our neighbors and friends," said Mr. Turnage. "We helped them because we used Christmas Seals through their once-a-year campaign, the only support given to this organization."

African Rebels to Execute U.S. Missionary

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Dr. Paul Carlson, an American medical missionary who refused to abandon his Congolese patients behind rebel lines, is to be executed in Stanleyville today, a rebel broadcast announced.

The rebels charged Carlson, 36, was a major in the U.S. armed forces.

(In Washington the Pentagon said Stanley is not a military man.)

U.S. Embassy officials in Leopoldville said Carlson, 36, belonged to the Protestant mission Evangelique de L'Ubangi which has its headquarters at the Covenant World Mission in Chicago.

They said Carlson's only military experience was a two-year hitch in the Navy between 1946 and 1948.

Carlson was captured by the rebels on Sept. 21 at Yakoma, north of Stanleyville on the Congo's border with the Central African Republic. He had radioed earlier that he intended to stay behind to treat sick and wounded.

Christophe Gbenye, self-proclaimed president of the Communist-backed "Congolese Peoples' Republic" in Stanleyville, announced last month that Carlson was being held in the rebel capital, awaiting trial.

In Chicago, Dr. Arden Almquist, executive secretary of Covenant World Missions, said Carlson "definitely is not a spy."

"Part of his difficulty may be that we have radio communication between our various mission stations and we have transmitters," he said.

"It's possible the use of the transmitters or rebel knowledge of that fact that he has one may be interpreted by them to mean that he is spying."

Carlson is the first white foreigner rebel leaders have ordered executed.

Thousands of Congolese have been murdered. Central government troops who recaptured Kindu, capital of Maniema Province, found the foot of a monument to the late Patrice Lumumba, the Congo's extremist first premier blackened and cracked by heat where rebels had burned hundreds of Congolese alive.

Messages filtering out of Stanleyville say batches of Congolese are killed there each day at the foot of a monument to Lumumba.

More than 1,000 foreigners are still in the rebel zone, including more than 60 Americans.

Most of the trapped Americans are missionaries or teachers at Stanleyville's Protestant University. Five Americans from the U.S. consulate in Stanleyville have been held more than two months.

The rebels hoped to pressure the United States, Belgium and other Western nations into dropping support of Premier Moïse Tshombe.

2 Persons Killed in 2-Car Wreck Near City Limits

Two persons were killed early Sunday in a two car accident on Highway 20, just north of the Hope City limits. The dead are Mrs. Lena Aslin, 46, of Hope and Mrs. Lynda Rowe Hurtgen, 24, of Texarkana.

State Policeman Guy Downing said the car driven by Mrs. Aslin, who was alone and on her way home to Oakhaven from early church services, skidded on wet pavement on a curve, slipped sideways directly into the path of a car driven by Quentin Hurtgen, 25, husband of the dead woman.

Mrs. Hurtgen was dead on arrival at a local hospital where she was taken by an Oakcrest ambulance. Mr. Hurtgen was treated at a local hospital for minor injuries and released. The parents of Mrs. Hurtgen, Mr. and Mrs. Clayborn Rowe, were driving directly behind their daughter's car and witnessed the accident. Mrs. Rowe was hospitalized suffering from shock.

Mrs. Aslin was taken to a local hospital by a Herndon-Cornelius ambulance where she was examined and rushed to a specialist at Shreveport. She sustained head and chest injuries and died shortly after 2 p.m. Sunday.

Besides her husband and parents, Mrs. Hurtgen is survived by a brother, Jimmy Rowe of the home and three sisters, Mrs. James Moss and Mrs. T.L. Watson of Texas and Mrs. Joe Barham of Hope.

Services were to be held at 2 p.m. Monday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Lacy Rowe. Burial was to be in Memory Gardens.

Mrs. Aslin, a member of First Methodist Church, was an employee of Southwest Bell Telephone Company. She is survived by her husband, Edward, a son, Eddie of the home, a daughter, Mrs. Pamela Chandler of Springfield; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Evans of Shreveport; three brothers, John Evans of Shreveport, Claude and Henry Evans of Casa Grande, Arizona; four sisters, Mrs. Bill Wray of Hope, Mrs. Betty Massey, Mrs. Bill Souther and Mrs. Mark Nezat, all of Shreveport.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church at 3 p.m. Tuesday by the Rev. Robert Moore. Burial by Herndon-Cornelius will be in Memory Gardens. The family requested no offerings.

Goldwater in Try to Regroup Republicans

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's support of Dean Burch's claim that he has "a four-year contract" to head the Republican National Committee pushed bickering Republicans today toward a showdown over control of their party machinery.

Burch said Sunday he will fight back if anyone tries to oust him.

Among others, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, former Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York made it clear they will use all the influence they have to force a change in leadership of the national committee.

Goldwater said on his return Sunday night from a Jamaican vacation after his defeat by President Johnson that the party should honor Burch's "contract." Goldwater picked Burch for the chairmanship after his own nomination at the San Francisco convention and the committee in turn elected the Phoenix, Ariz., lawyer.

Burch has scheduled a January meeting of the national committee at which he has said he would stand or fall on a vote of confidence.

An Associated Press survey showed that the comparatively few national committee members willing to express an opinion were about evenly divided on whether the chairman should step aside because of his part in the election campaign. Many

Safety Rules Program at Yerger High

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (Special)—Feats of magic will lend their fascination to rules of traffic safety in a "Safety Magic" show to be presented at Yerger High School, in Hope, Arkansas, on November 20.

The show will feature Traffic Sgt. Carl S. Pike, currently on leave from the Kent County Sheriff's Department in Grand Rapids, Mich. The sergeant is now on a nationwide tour under sponsorship of American Trucking Associations, Washington, D. C. While in Hope, Sgt. Pike's local sponsors are the Arkansas State Police and the Arkansas Bus & Truck Association. Sgt. A. E. members of the committee said something must be done to rebuild the party, but not many were specific about what form this should take.

Veteran politicians had expected Burch to save his $30,000-a-year job by some conciliatory statement that he would serve all party factions as a non-policy-making director.

This would have followed the pattern of Goldwater's statement that the Republican course in the next four years will be carved out by GOP members of the Senate and House under the leadership of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Burch, accompanying Goldwater on his return, said that as chairman he would be "mechanic and technician, not a creator of policy." But, he added, he had been elected for a four-year term, intends to serve it out and if anybody thought to oust him, he would fight back.

Goldwater backed up this statement with the observation that Burch was under contract to the party.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon told newsmen on his arrival in Tokyo Sunday that a GOP comeback hinges on finding new leadership "that is acceptable to all elements within the party, from Goldwater at one end of the spectrum to Rockefeller at the other." He emphasized his call for new leadership was not necessarily a call for new faces and said that if party leaders decide Burch "could be chairman for all the party, he could become part of that new leadership."

Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., a liberal who gave Goldwater a faint endorsement in the campaign, is one of those seeking to get rid of Burch. Scott could testify that regardless of the legal aspects he escaped ouster as national chairman in 1949 by a one-vote margin on a committee ballot.

Rockefeller said on the ABC "Issues and Answers" television program that he expects a change in national leadership of the party, and made it plain that he had Burch in mind.

The New York governor said that choice of a new chairman was the responsibility of the national committee, of which he is not a member.

Lodge said on NBC's "Meet the Press" program he doesn't think that in reorganization the Republicans ought to read anybody out of the party. But he said he believes there ought to be established a permanent advisory council of leading Republicans such as he said had been suggested by Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky, a former national chairman.

Lodge, who was Nixon's running mate in 1960, said that a suggestion by Goldwater that the parties ought to be realigned on a liberal and conservative basis was "totally foreign to the two-party system."

Writing in the New York Times, Javits said that Republicans must reorganize their party on a basis where it will appeal to middle-of-the-road voters. He deplored what he described as an excursion by Goldwater into the "extremist" area in the campaign.

Unless the Republicans reorient their course, Javits said, "Democrats will be running against Sen. Goldwater and the 1964 platform for years to come."

The highway and the railroad run through the bottom of the 4,500-foot-high valley, which is within sight of the neon glow of the Las Vegas strip to the north. Most of the valley is open country where a plane could possibly survive a forced landing.

Not many miles away on the east and west are mountains. On the west, in the Clark Mountains, slopes climb steeply to 8,500-foot Potosi Mountain. To the east foothills rise to 5,000-foot heights.

Bonanza officials hoped at first the plane might have been flown to another field after its pilot somehow lost radio communications. The plane carried enough fuel to keep it aloft until 11 p.m.

Soon after that Myron Reynolds, Bonanza's vice president in charge of operations, told newsmen: "The fuel point has been passed. We must assume the plane is down. We just don't know where."

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — An airliner carrying 28 persons disappeared in a snowstorm as it neared a landing at Las Vegas Sunday night, and an airline official said: "We must assume the plane is down."

The plane was a Bonanza Airlines propjet en route to Las Vegas' McCarran Field from Phoenix, Ariz. It carried a crew of 3 and 25 passengers.

The plane was due at 8:30 p.m. It carried enough fuel to keep it aloft until 11 p.m.

Soon after that time Myron Reynolds, vice president of operations for Bonanza, told newsmen at the line's office here: "The fuel point has been passed. We must assume the plane is down. We just don't know where."

The plane vanished from the McCarran Field radar screen at 8:24 p.m. while approximately eight miles south of the city.

Thirty sheriff's units rushed to the area and hunted as light snow fell. It was the first snowfall of the season.

Sheriff's deputies reported that a power line was down near the Blue Diamond gypsum mine, in the area in which the plane was last reported. It may have been knocked down by the plane, they said.

Bryant Asks More for Microfilms

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Legislative Council began digging through reams of state agency budget work today. The first order of business was the budget of the secretary of state's office.

Kelly Bryant requested $331,467 a year to run his office for the next two years. The annual appropriation for the past two years was $274,152.

The major portion of the increase was in the cost of maintenance of the capitol building and grounds — $210,137 a year compared with $164,812 in 1963-64.

Bryant wants $73,360 a year to operate his office, an increase of $6,470 a year. He asked for $16,970 for microfilming of records compared with $11,450 a year in 1963-64.

Much of the buildings and grounds increases, if granted, would go for salary raises for custodial and maintenance employees.

Lt. Gov. Nathan Gordon asked for $11,056 a year to run his office, the same as in the past two years.

Land Commissioner Sam Jones asked for $56,203 per year compared to $55,970 annually in the last biennium.

He asked for salary raises for six of his staff members.

The Arkansas Children's Hospital asked for $25,000 a year, the same as in the past two years.

The Southern Regional Education Board asked for $25,000 a year, including $10,000 for dental school student aid. Only $30,000 a year has been allotted for that purpose.

The Arkansas Historical Association asked for $1,500 per year instead of the $1,000 it now gets.

The council will continue budget hearings through Friday, then will recess until after Thanksgiving, and go back to work early in December.

Budget hearings usually are held earlier in the year, in preparation for upcoming legislative sessions, but the work was put off this year because of the general election.

The council will recommend to the legislature appropriations for the various state agencies.

Submarine Canyon Is Confirmed

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — The first direct evidence confirming existence of the "Hatteras submarine canyon" was reported by Duke University scientists Sunday.

Dr. Robert Menzies, director of the university's oceanography program, said sonar soundings from the university research ship Eastward indicated the chasm in the Atlantic Ocean floor off Cape Hatteras is several hundred feet deep and may be several hundred miles long. The canyon has been an object of speculation for more than 30 years.

Precinct Lag in Counties Was Fatal

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Failure to develop a precinct-level organization in 25 or 30 counties was probably the biggest factor in Republican Winthrop Rockefeller's defeat by Gov. Orval E. Faubus, a GOP official said.

G. Thomas Eisele, who was Rockefeller's campaign manager in the governor's race, made the statement in an interview published Monday by the Arkansas Gazette.

He said he was proud of the organizing job done by the GOP in 45 or 50 counties, and said if Republicans had done as well in the rest "it might have made the difference" in the Nov. 3 general election.

Faubus got about 65,000 votes more than Rockefeller.

"We have in the 50 counties the basis for an effective political organization — and this has been created out of this campaign to a large extent," he said. "The two-party system has arrived in Arkansas."

He said another factor in Rockefeller's defeat was that the GOP organization didn't succeed in putting across Rockefeller's plans for the economic development of Arkansas.

He said it was planned for Rockefeller to emphasize economic development in the last

Party Line Use Limit Dropped

WATERTVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — The talkers became shouters and a telephone company's plan to limit party-line conversations weeks of the campaign, after he had finished his handshaking tours.

But at a crucial point, Eisele said, Faubus forced Rockefeller off the track with charges of cemetery desecration and other issues. He said that faced with this, the economic development plan took a back seat.

Eisele said Faubus forces worked very hard for the Negro vote late in the campaign, and said it was clear that in future elections there will be strong competition for the Negro vote, "and probably on a more open basis than ever before."

He said that unofficial returns compiled by the Rockefeller staff show the Republican candidate carried 11 of the state's 75 counties. He said the counties were Sevier, Baxter, Benton, Washington, Pulaski, Boone, Sebastian, Jefferson, Carroll, Crawford and Marion.

Eisele charged that many illegal votes were cast for Faubus in absentee boxes of "machine counties," mainly by persons who did not meet residency requirements. If illegal absentee ballots were thrown out, Eisele predicted, Faubus' total vote would be reduced by 1 1/2 to 2 percent, or about 5,000 to 7,000 votes.

Blizzards Hit in Rocky Mountains

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A snowstorm that blitzed the Rocky Mountains Sunday brought blizzards to northern Arizona and spilled wintry weather across normally mild central and southern deserts.

Hundreds of motorists were stranded, hunters marooned and 13 persons reported missing as the late-afternoon blizzard struck the Kingman area in Arizona's northwest corner.

Arizona 93, the main route from Phoenix to Las Vegas, Nev., was closed by the highway patrol after at least 100 cars were stranded about 15 miles south of Kingman.

Bonanza Airline Flight 114 to eight minutes will be dropped.

The Chenango-Unadilla Telephone Corp. installed a cut-off device on party lines in this hamlet last month when a dial system went into use.

As the conversation began to near the eight-minute mark a buzzer would sound and the connection was cut.

The company's northern district manager, Robert C. Lindquist, said the enforced brevity will be ended Monday because those dialing it were more numerous and more vocal.

with 25 passengers and three crew members was missing en route from Phoenix to Las Vegas. It disappeared from view in a radar screen about 10 miles from Las Vegas.

The Arizona Highway Patrol also shut off U.S. 66 to the east, and the Mohave County sheriff's office dispatched its jeep posse into snow-swept desert mountains south of Kingman in search of the lost, who were mostly hunters. All were found by late Sunday night.

Sheriff Floyd Cisney said he'd never seen a heavier storm so early in the year.

"There was about four inches of snow on the ground and the wind piled up drifts as high as two feet on both U.S. 66 and State Route 93.

Motels filled up as the stranded motorists poured into Kingman and many were taken into private homes.

No serious injuries were reported there, but a Prescott school teacher, Calie Mae White, 20, was killed when her car skidded off snowy Arizona 69 about 30 miles south of Prescott.

The main highway from Phoenix to Flagstaff, 140 miles to the north, was closed for more than six hours before the patrol got some 500 cars rolling early today.

The patrol summoned all its heavy equipment and called on private wreckers to help pull cars back on the road. Chains

Indians Carry Out an Old Custom

CHICAGO (AP) — Indian dances were performed hundreds of years ago in attempts to bring rain, make crops grow and insure success in battle.

Hundreds of American Indians did their ritual dances this weekend for another reason — to raise money for their city-dwelling kinsmen who are new to the white man's ways. About 10,000 Indians live in Chicago.

It may have been incidental, but a two-month Illinois drought was eased somewhat a day-long rain Sunday.

were necessary on nearly all northern Arizona routes today. Flagstaff reported nine inches of snow and Prescott eight.

Snows and chilling rains spread across central and southern Arizona, with snow mantling higher mountains and leaving a four-inch cover to surprised residents of Ajo, near the Mexican border.

In southwestern Colorado, U.S. 160 over Wolf Creek Pass was reopened today after a three-foot snowfall closed the route Sunday.

Colorado 82 over Independence Pass between the famed ski resort at Aspen and Twin Lakes was closed, probably for the season. The weekend snows relieved the fire danger in Colorado's mountain forests but the powder-dry eastern plains got little help from a light snow.

$24,000 in Life Savings Stolen

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Mohamed Ben Ali had hoped to retire this year after 40 years of selling hot chestnuts, peanuts and popcorn from his pushcart.

Saturday night burglars stole what he called his life savings of $24,000. The money included $10,000 in coins, stuffed into peanut bags and hidden in shopping bags.

"I saved and saved and saved—all for a burglar," said the 68-year-old vendor. "I'm just a man without a life. I feel like the blood has run out of me."

Ben Ali, who lives alone, has been a widower nearly 20 years. He left his native Morocco as a teen-ager.

After losing money in the 1929 stock market crash he began to store his cash in paper bags.

Teachers Demand Pay Increases

By JACK OWENS

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Scores of public school teachers, demanding an average $1,000-a-year pay boost, descended on the Louisiana Capitol today as the legislature started a special 20-day session.

Teachers from a number of rural parishes (counties) joined those from three urban New Orleans area parishes in a demonstration for the full raise rather than Gov. John McKeithen's half-a-loaf.

One spokesman put the number of rural parishes sending delegations at 12. A half-dozen busloads came from New Orleans.

An Avoyelles Parish teacher spokesman said 300 or more teachers would come from his parish alone, where teachers notified their school board they would be absent and would make up for the missed day at the end of the school year. Public schools in the New Orleans area were closed for the day.

During a weekend television series, Gov. McKeithen recalled that in 1940, when he was a university student working in the legislature, "the teachers marched on Baton Rouge and came in and actually sat down in the Senate chamber."

"This is nothing new for Louisiana," McKeithen remarked.

McKeithen scheduled a meeting with Lloyd Rittiner, president of the Orleans Parish Board of Education, and the estimated 35 teachers who could crowd into his office.

City to Vote on Bond Issue

BLITHEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Blitheville residents will vote Tuesday on a $50 million Act 9 bond issue to finance construction of a chemical plant for the Continental Oil Co.

Continental plans to build a $20 million facility. The remaining $30 million in bonds will not be issued unless the company decides to expand the plant.

Mayor Jimmie Edwards has designated election day as "Continental Day" in Blitheville.

There is no organized opposition to the bond proposal which does not involve a tax. The bonds will be retired by rental paid by Continental.

He appeared to be talking of cash contributions although at past council sessions some prelates suggested that bishops turn in their ring and pectoral crosses as a way of raising money for the poor.

There was no indication from Vatican sources how Pope Paul's $10,000 crown would be used to help the poor.

The council began the 10th and last week of its third session.

Ecumenical Council in Final Week

By BENNET M. BOLTON

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The 2,000 Roman Catholic prelates entered the final week of the current session of the Vatican Ecumenical Council today and heard an appeal for donations to the poor of the world, just as Pope Paul VI gave away his own jeweled crown.

Archbishop Percile Felici, secretary general of the Council, told the assembly in St. Peter's Basilica that a number of cardinals gave the Pope money for the needy after the pontiff's dramatic gesture last Friday.

The archbishop said many council fathers had asked how they could "participate" in Pope Paul's action.

"The very best way would be to give offerings to the Pope for

Nebraska to Meet Porkers in Cotton Bowl

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The feeling grows that the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame, the country's No. 1 college football team, may make themselves available for a bowl bid provided they beat Iowa this week and Southern California a week from Saturday to wind up a perfect 10-0 season.

The bowl situation jelled somewhat over the weekend with the announcement that Arkansas and Nebraska, each unbeaten and untied in nine games, will play in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas New Year's Day. Texas, 8-1, accepted an invitation for the Orange Bowl at Miami New Year's night. Unofficially Alabama, 9-0 and second-ranked nationally to Notre Dame, was indicated as the opponent for the Longhorns.

That leaves the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans and the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., as the other major bowls Jan. 1.

A Sugar Bowl source told The Associated Press Sunday that Louisiana State, 6-1-1, and Syracuse, 7-2, will play there although no official announcement is expected until after this week's games.

The Rose Bowl is committed to teams from the Big Ten and Pacific Athletic Conference.

The powers-that-be at Notre Dame haven't said yes or no or maybe regarding a bowl bid, but there's no doubt the players would be for it.

"I guess it would be great," said star pass receiver Jack Snow after the Irish walloped Michigan State 34-7 Saturday for their eighth in a row. "Going from a 5-5 season to a 2-7 season and now a bowl. I'd like it, but it's not up to me to say anything."

Coach Ara Parseghian declares only "it's an administrative problem" and Athletic Director Moose Krause denies saying "chances of accepting (a bowl bid) were one in a million, not a billion."

All this talk plus the fact that the athletic board, headed by University Executive Vice President Edmund P. Joyce, C.S.C., has made no announcement one way or the other, accounts for the feeling that the Irish might be receptive to a bid.

Team officials at Arkansas, Nebraska and Texas expressed elation at being named to bowls. "It's a great day, a milestone, anything you want to say," Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles said after his Porkers had crushed Southern Methodist 44-0.

"The players all shouted they wanted the Orange when I told them they could have their choice of a bowl," said Texas Coach Darrell Royal after the Longhorns had whipped Texas Christian 28-13.

Nebraska accepted the Cotton Bowl bid after defeating Oklahoma State 27-14 for its 16th straight victory. The Cornhuskers are fourth-ranked nationally, last year's national champs, No. 5.

Michigan, No. 6, whipped Iowa 34-20, and Ohio State, No. 7, downed Northwestern 10-0 and now are primed for their Big Ten title and Rose Bowl bid clash Saturday. Woody Hayes, Ohio State coach, aptly termed it the "purgatory or Pasadena" game.

Stanford upset No. 8 Oregon State 16-7 to set up the confusing situation in the PAC. Oregon State, UCLA, Southern California and Washington share the lead and if Oregon beats Oregon State Saturday the Ducks would have the best overall team record 8-1-1, although only a 2-1-1 conference mark. That might lead those whose task it is to pick a team for the Rose Bowl

Chamberlain Is Doing Some Better

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Will Chamberlain is feeling better and the rest of the National Basketball Association knows it.

Chamberlain, who missed the San Francisco Warriors' first five games because of a stomach ailment, scored 62 points Sunday night as the Warrior topped Cincinnati 122-106.

The 7-foot-1 giant hit 26 field goals and his teammates threw a defensive blanket around Jack Twyman and Oscar Robertson to win it.

In Sunday's only other NBA game, Los Angeles whipped Detroit 111-105.

All Atlantes guarded Twyman and Nate Thurmond handled Robertson as Warrior Coach Alex Hannum decided to swap assignments. Atlantes thwarted Twyman's fast break and limited the Royal veteran to two points. Robertson scored 22.

Los Angeles stretched its Western Division lead to two games over the idle St. Louis Hawks, rallying from a 10-point deficit to beat Detroit.

Applications for Cotton Bowl Tickets

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)

The Athletic Department Ticket Office at the University of Arkansas said it would start accepting mail applications today for tickets to the Cotton Bowl.

Arkansas meets Nebraska in the New Year's Day football game at Dallas.

Miss Vera Moddy, ticket manager, said that no telephone orders will be accepted for the tickets. The tickets cost $5.50 each.

A limit of four tickets per person has been set, but the office will allow two applications to be sent together so a group of eight may sit together.

The applications must bear a postmark of Dec. 3 or earlier.

Tech Victory Sews Up Title in the AIC

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Robert Marley scored three touchdowns to lead Arkansas Tech to a 27-6 victory over Harding Saturday as the Wonder Boys won their third Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference football crown in five years.

Tech came back from a fifth-place finish last year to build a 7-0 conference record. Tech finishes the year next Saturday against Northeast Missouri.

In other AIC games, Arkansas State Teachers edged Henderson 6-0, Arkansas A&M beat Southern State 14-13 and Ouachita downed Millsaps of Jackson, Miss., 21-0.

All other AIC football teams except Henderson and Ouachita are through for the season.

In the Tech victory, Marley scored on runs of eight, one and five yards. Jerry Dickinson got the other Tech touchdown on a two-yard plunge.

Harding got its touchdown on a 38-yard pass play from Barney Cox to Jerome Prince. The conversion try was blocked.

State Teachers took advantage of a Henderson fumble on the Henderson 18 and tailback Jim Williams drove over from the one three plays later for the Weevil victory at Conway.

The extra point try went wide. Jim Hogan scored all of Ouachita's touchdowns as he led his team to a 21-15 victory over Millsaps College at Jackson, Miss.

Hogan scored on runs of five and seven yards in the first period and added a 38-yard run in the third.

Jerry Drane plunged one yard for the first Millsaps score then passed 26-yards to Webb Buies for the other.

Arkansas A&M spotted Southern State 13 points then came back with two fourth-period tries to get the victory at Magnolia.

Quarterback Johnnie Tune passed six yards to Homer Stout for one Mulderider touchdown, then plunged over from the one for the other. The conversion attempt on the first score was wide.

Ronnie Higgins punched over from the five for the first A&M score.

Cassius Clay Fine After Operation

BOSTON (AP) — Yon Cassius

lies lean and sickly — behind the Muslim curtain — looking not the least like the heavyweight champion who was originally going to defend his crown against Sonny Liston tonight.

Cassius Clay, in case you've been out of touch, underwent surgery for an incarcerated hernia Friday night.

Bundini Brown, Clay's assistant trainer, phrases the disappointment over the fight postponement this way:

"Just two days to go and he was so pretty. He was getting evil, too, good and evil like he had to be for this. All this work — it's like milkin' a cow and having him kick it over."

The latest medical report issued on Clay reads, "improving and feeling kind of happy" despite the big letdown.

Boston City Hospital issues an occasional phrase but no one gets by Clay's heavy guard of Black Muslims, the organization which gave him the name Muhammad Ali by which he prefers to be known.

Liston left town with the lament: "I feel very bad. I was ready to go. Clay probably got that hernia because when he opens his mouth so wide, with so much talk, a lot of winds gets in. His hernia gave me some financial surgery."

Dejected promoters began the job of redeeming $275,000 worth of tickets sold on the bout. They estimated the losses from their standpoint at around $75,000. Frederic Brooks, head of the closed-circuit TV firm, figures losses in that field at between $100,000 and $400,000.

Liston said he did not think the postponement would have any bad effect on him and that he probably would not try to take another fight before Clay is ready for the rematch.

Bill Faversham, Clay's manager who favors the fight rescheduled in Boston in May if conditions permit, said he personally was willing to waive a contract clause and permit Liston to take a tuneup bout.

Medical men can't seem to agree as to how long it might be before Clay can fight again. Estimates now range from six to nine months.

Porkers Really Slaughter the Mustangs

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Third-ranked Arkansas smashed Southern Methodist 44-0 here Saturday taking a Cotton Bowl berth and at least a tie for the Southwest Conference football championship.

The Razorbacks can have the conference title all alone by beating Texas Tech in Lubbock next Saturday.

Nebraska accepted an invitation to meet the Razorbacks in Dallas on New Year's Day. The Cornhuskers, with a 9-0 record and a 16-game winning streak, have clinched at least a tie for the Big Eight Conference title. They can have it all by beating Oklahoma Saturday.

The Razorbacks' victory over SMU set a school record for consecutive triumphs, set another school record for the widest victory margin over a Southwest Conference foe, and gave Arkansas a fourth straight shut-out for the first time since 1947.

Wingback Jim Lindsey started the scoring on a four-yard pass from quarterback Fred Marshall.

The others, in succession, came like this:

Lindsey on an 8-yard run, Bobby Burnett from the one, Tommy McKelney with a 23-yard field goal, Bobby Crockett with a fumble recovery in the Pony end zone, Burnett on a 7-yard pass play with Bill Gray and Ken Hatfield on a 78-yard punt return.

McKelney upped his consecutive extra point kicks to 25, and then missed his first of the year.

Tackle Jim Williams blocked the punt Crockett recovered. Guy Jones intercepted two SMU passes. And the Razorbacks held the Mustangs to 132 yards total offense — only 55 against the Razorback's first line units in the first half.

Coach Frank Broyles said Sunday he had a "fantastic team," which has "improved noticeably" each week.

Broyles said the paring of fourth-ranked Nebraska and third-ranked Arkansas probably would be the best bowl card.

But he was more interested, as of now, in Texas Tech, which has the best offense in the conference.

Tech probably has the best balanced offense in our conference," Broyles said. "They've got a good strong running game. They've got average passing but the kind that can hurt you. They've got the most versatility of any offense in the conference."

Arkansas has the best defense in the conference.

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) —

Undeclared State Ties Lamar Tech

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) —

Lamar Tech drove 94 yards in the fourth quarter here Saturday to pull to a 7-7 with Arkansas State and win the first Southland Conference football championship.

The tie left Arkansas State with two victories, no losses and two ties in conference play and left Lamar Tech with three victories, no losses and one tie.

Though they tied the Indians still came up with their first undefeated season since 1951 with a 7-0-2 record.

Arkansas State controlled the scoreless first half, then came back to take the second period kickoff and drive 54 yards for the touchdown.

Fullback Harold Wallin punched over from the one for the touchdown and guard Dan Summers kicked his 20th extra point out of 20 attempts for the season.

With 13:22 left in the game, Arkansas State punted dead on the Tech six, but Tech got its offense going and moved the distance in eight plays. The final 40 yards came on a run by halfback Harold LaFite. Burt Allman kicked the point after.

Arkansas State advanced from the Indian 20 to the 50 in the closing minutes but David Perkins stopped the drive by intercepting an Indian pass at the Tech 38 with 1:15 left.

Key injuries and costly fumbles opened the gates. Babe Parilli's right arm finished the job. But the Buffalo Bills' magic may have started to slip away when they called for the fireman before the fire had started.

The Boston Patriots capitalized on Buffalo mistakes Sunday and, with Parilli firing five touchdown passes, rallied for a 36-28 American Football League victory that ended the Bills' winning string at nine games.

Injuries to pass receivers Glenn Bass and El Dubenion and defensive back Booker Edgerson contributed to the Buffalo fadeout. So did three fumbles that set up Boston touchdowns. The tip-off, however, came in the second half when the Bills made a mistake that won't show in the game statistics.

They sent in Daryle Lamonia — when they were ahead.

Lamonia, the league's No. 1 relief pitcher, had come off the bench in six previous games and led the Bills to comeback victories. But, when he replaced starting quarterback Jack Kemp midway through the third

Texas Accepts Bid to Play in Orange Bowl

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Sports Writer

Forgive the Southwest Conference for feeling a trifle chesty — it has just contributed teams to the two top-rated bowls in the country. Games that got the top-rated teams eligible for bowls, that is.

Texas, ranked No. 5, meets Alabama, No. 2, in the Orange Bowl New Year's night. The latter hasn't said it will be at Miami Jan. 1 but it's only a matter of meeting the rules of its conference. Alabama has to finish the season before it can publicly accept a bowl bid.

Arkansas, rated No. 3, meets Nebraska, No. 4, in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

Arkansas is the undefeated, untied leader of the Southwest Conference, expected to win the championship undefeated Saturday when it plays Texas Tech at Lubbock in the final game.

Texas is second in the conference and could tie for the title should Arkansas stumble to Tech while the Longhorns were socking Texas A&M on Thanksgiving Day.

Of course No. 1 is Notre Dame but apparently it isn't going to a bowl game.

The Southwest Conference also felt pretty good about its interseasonal record. It appeared for a time that the league might make its worst showing but Baylor and Texas Tech took care of all worries Saturday when they beat Kentucky and Washington State, respectively.

So the conference winds up 10-10 in interseasonal play. Arkansas clinched a tie for the title Saturday when it swamped Southern Methodist 44-0. That also made Arkansas host team in the Cotton Bowl.

Texas whipped Texas Christian 28-13 and got into the Orange Bowl. Texas also stayed only a game back of Arkansas quarter, with Buffalo leading 28-14, the move backfired.

After a five-yard delay-of-game penalty moved the ball from the Buffalo 27 to the 22, Lamonia threw an incomplete pass, was tossed for a 10-yard loss on the next play and then lost the ball to Boston's Larry Eisenhauer on the 5.

Parilli immediately flipped a five-yard scoring pass to Gino Cappelletti and the Patriots struck for two more touchdowns in the last quarter to pull it out.

While the Bills' loss tightened the Eastern Division race, the San Diego Chargers closed in on the Western title by whipping Kansas City 28-14 behind second-year quarterback John Hadl. The Denver Broncos surprised the New York Jets 20-16 and the Oakland Raiders topped the Houston Oilers 20-10.

Boston scored the go-ahead points on Parilli's six-yard pass to Larry Garrison and a two-point conversion flip to Cappelletti, whose 24 points raised his league-leading total to 122.

SBA Has Big Role in State Economy

By ALVIN SCHAY
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Small Business Administration, a federal agency started 11 years ago, has played a major role in Arkansas' growing economy.

So far this year, for example, the SBA has made 150 loans in Arkansas totaling $5,719,740. The agency's loans are available to almost every type of business in the state.

The SBA provides needed financing to creditworthy small businesses, when loans are not available to them on reasonable terms from private lending sources.

Chris W. Ferguson, branch SBA manager for Arkansas, said the agency fills a need between banks, which prefer shorter term loans and insurance companies, which like longer terms.

SBA loans are generally for 10 years.

The agency defines a small business as one that is independently owned and operated and nondominant in its field, and meets other requirements of the SBA.

A manufacturing firm is considered small if it has 250 or fewer employees; a retail business if its sales do not exceed $1 million a year; and a wholesale business if its yearly sales are $5 million or less.

Among types of businesses not eligible for SBA loan are newspapers and magazines, and radio and television stations.

Others not eligible are charitable institutions, gambling organizations and firms or businesses engaged in the sale or distribution of alcoholic beverages.

The agency has two types of loans—direct and participation. In participation loans, the SBA joins with a private lending agency in a loan to a small business.

In a direct loan, the loan is made entirely and directly by the agency to the borrower. By law, the SBA may not make a direct loan if a participation loan can be arranged.

Besides lending to individuals (or partnerships), the SBA can make loans to industrial development corporations.

Only this week a loan of this type was made to an industrial development corporation in a South Arkansas city, but Ferguson said "his office" had made probably no more than a half dozen such loans.

The SBA will also begin granting Economic Opportunity Loans, a part of President Johnson's war on poverty, later this month, Ferguson said. These new type loans will be restricted to a maximum of $25,000 for a maximum term of 15 years.

Regular SBA loans can be for up to $350,000. Ferguson, a native Arkansan, said he thinks SBA has had a very positive effect on the state's economy. Ferguson, from Star City, started the Arkansas SBA office. He served five years as regional director of the agency.

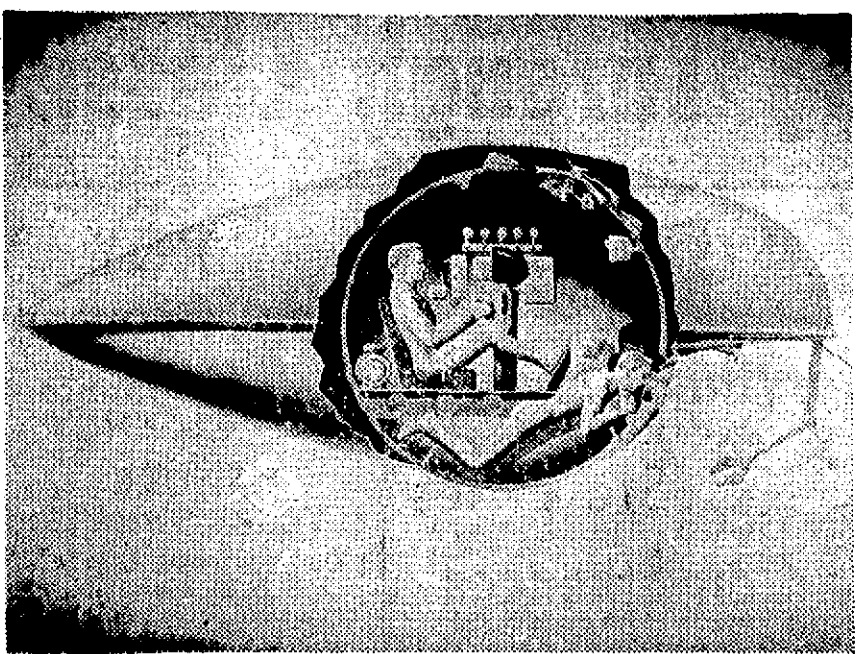

He said the Little Rock office of SBA is now servicing 532 loans, with an outstanding balance of more than $22 million.

Demands for SBA loans have been so great this year that branch offices have been advised to curtail, or limit, loans of some types until Congress replenishes the SBA revolving fund early in 1965.

Television and Radio

NEW YORK (AP) — Network television Thursday night was something of a Roman holiday. First there was NBC's medical team of Kildare and Gillespie sojourning in a studio reproduction of the Italian city and splitting their time almost equally between romance and a problem of disease.

Later, on ABC, came "Sophia Loren in Rome," an hour which had the Italian film star strolling around the more interesting, ancient and spectacular parts of the city spouting dates, statistics and figures like the most seasoned tour guide.

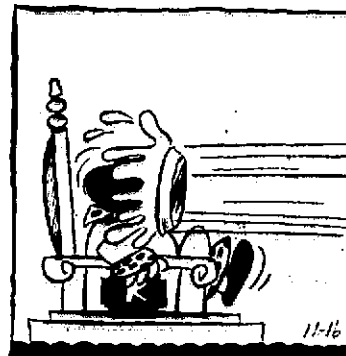

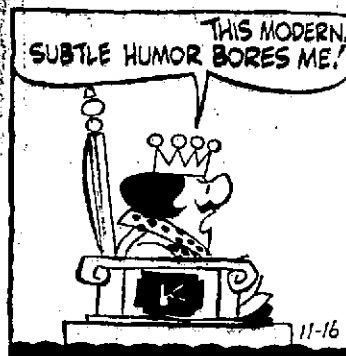

Of the two programs, Miss Loren's was infinitely more interesting and also more dramatic even if it did lack a formal plot. It was, in fact, witty and gay and imaginative from the opening scenes — a camera ballet of Rome in sunshine and rain, of cars and horses, gas pumps and great art, all conducted by the sweeping gestures of a traffic cop — to the final moment when Miss Loren, explaining the "cliche" tossed the inevitable coin into the Trevi Fountain.

Presumably many viewers tuned in the program because of a greater interest in Miss Loren's impressive facade than in the double walls of Hadrian's Tomb.

But what made the program a blessing was the way wit and humor was blended with the skillful photography. It was the most attractive travelogue this viewer has seen — and the Italian Tourist Bureau should strike a medal for Miss Loren and Sheldon Reynolds, who wrote and directed it.

It looks now as if ABC's "Mickey," which has not been well received and has also been hit by the death of featured player Sammee Tong, will be replaced in a couple of months by an extra half hour of the show that precedes it, "Shindig," a pop music half hour which has been a hit with the young rock 'n' roll crowd.

Sees No Hope for Birth Control

The Tucson Citizen

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Margaret Sanger, founder of the birth-control movement, has little hope that the population explosion will be controlled.

"I just don't see how we can control the birth rate until we get the government to agree that this is something that should be taken seriously," said Mrs. Sanger in a recent interview.

"Other countries feel that if our country is against it, it must be bad," she continued. "Americans would be much more acceptable when they go abroad to work on this problem, if we could get our government to okay it under population control."

Mrs. Sanger, who once challenged President Dwight D. Eisenhower to debate whether birth control is a proper concern of government, advises her country to follow Japan's example.

"The first time I went to Japan, I didn't get anywhere," she said. "But when I went back after the war, I found that quite a movement had been building up. We could do well to copy the Japanese on this."

However, she is not so optimistic about finding a solution to India's population problem.

"The difficulty there is the language," she explained. "Even Mr. Nehru didn't speak all the languages of India."

Mrs. Sanger said she is encouraged by what she sees as a change in the attitude of the Roman Catholic Church.

But what the birth-control movement still needs most of all is education, she said. "Education is needed mainly among the poor and illiterate. I began the movement really because of them."

When she began her crusade to make birth control a public issue and a private possibility back in 1912, the whole subject was taboo.

"I had to be very careful about the words I used," Mrs. Sanger recalled. "Even my father — an outspoken Irishman who brought me up to do my own thinking — said to me one day: 'Margaret, can't you find some other subject in the world to talk about besides the bed-"

BERLIN (AP) — West Berlin officials fear that East Germany won't reopen the Berlin wall at Christmas to let West Berliners visit relatives in the Communist sector of the divided city.

Red border guards closed the wall on schedule at midnight after a 14-day visiting period expired. It was the first of four periods within a year authorized by an agreement between the East German Communist regime and the West Berlin government. Nearly 600,000 West Berliners visited the East during the past two weeks.

The next visiting period is scheduled to run from Dec. 1 through Jan. 3. Thursday the Communists made a veiled threat to call off the Christmas visits unless West Berlin banks and exchange offices quit selling East German marks below the official rate.

Although she was jailed eight times for her efforts to spread information, Mrs. Sanger isn't bitter.

"Every time I was put in jail, it was a mistake," she explained. "It was by somebody who didn't know anything and thought I was advocating abortion. Actually, I was trying to get people to give up abortion and use contraceptives."

Mrs. Sanger founded the Planned Parenthood organization and was its international president until just a few years ago.

Now she is looking forward to the development of a drug that would produce infertility for a certain period of time. "Injection is the best idea," she said. "That will be the great day when they have that."

Democrats in Alabama Needle Voters

By REX THOMAS
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — After each presidential election since 1952, the Democrats in Alabama have counted the returns and twitted the Republicans: "You're eligible to have a primary now, why don't you?"

A political party must get 20 per cent of the votes in a general election before it can have a primary, at state expense, the following election year.

The Republicans have been eligible since the first Eisenhower campaign of 1952. They kept right on nominating their candidates by convention — and getting a bigger vote each election.

This year, it's a different story. It's the Democrats who had to call in the mathematicians to see if they can hold a primary in the 1966 elections.

Sen. Barry Goldwater carried Alabama on Nov. 3. The Democrats to only about 30 per cent of the vote.

Thus have the mighty fallen from public favor in a state where, for generation after generation, Democratic nomination was all it took to win.

The Goldwater landslide elected five Republicans to Congress and swept Democrats out of local office in a score of counties. Thousands of Alabamians, bristling with resentment against the party of their ancestors, cast a straight GOP ballot.

Republican spokesman joyfully proclaimed the advent of a strong two-party system in state long known for one-party control. Acting GOP state chairman Tom Brigham went further. He said Alabama will be a Republican state in the years to come.

Dismayed Democratic leaders analyzed the GOP victory, hopefully, as an emotional outburst touched off in large measure by opposition to the Civil Rights Act. They forecast a return to Democratic domination two years from now, but readily admitted their ranks are split by intraparty strife.

Some Democrats blamed Gov. George C. Wallace for the party setback because of his part in the presidential campaign and his refusal to support the national party.

The unprecedented defeat brought demands from the Democratic ranks for reorganization of the party; for a party registration law to keep Republicans out of the Democratic primaries; and for a return to the loyalty oath binding Democrats to the national ticket in future elections.

There were no reported injuries among the 91 passengers and nine crew members, though some passengers said they became airsick. The plane landed safely at Los Angeles International Airport some 55 minutes later.

On the financial front, Middendorf and other GOP officials make no secret of the fact that many traditionally Republican purses snapped shut following the nomination of Sen. Barry Goldwater for president — although there still were some large contributions.

For a time during the campaign, the financial situation was bleak. But repeated televised appeals for funds resulted in hundreds of thousands of letters bearing contributions in the $1 to $10 range.

GOP officials won't say how much they got, but Middendorf said recently that 1.5 million persons contributed to the Republican campaign compared with 40,000 in 1960.

The net result: a surplus for the Republican National Committee. Middendorf won't say how much, but he scoffs at reports that it tops $1 million.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara plans to reveal Monday the design he has approved for a permanent memorial grave at Arlington National Cemetery for the late President John F. Kennedy.

McNamara announced Thursday he had approved the design by architect John E. Warnecke. He said it has also been approved by Kennedy's widow, the Kennedy family, government authorities concerned with the design, the Commission of Fine Arts and the chairman of the National Capital Planning Commission.

Kennedy's grave on a slope at Arlington has been without a permanent marker since his burial last Nov. 25. The Army, which runs the cemetery, put a wooden fence and temporary walkways around the grave and its eternal flame.

It was an embarrassing moment for members of Britain's Royal Stratford Shakespeare company. A member of the company, Dorothy Tutin, had handed the book to the Pope for his blessing.

In the confusion immediately after a special performance given for the Pope and many of the 2,000 prelates attending the Vatican Ecumenical Council, Pope Paul VI mistook the $60,000 book as a gift.

After a hasty explanation by Archbishop John C. Heenan, the folio was returned.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference has invited Pope Paul to attend an international convocation for world peace in New York next Feb. 18-20. But Msgr. Giovannelli said "I do not think the conference would qualify as such an occasion."

Humphrey.

Nunez was arraigned Thursday and ordered held in $500 bail for trial.

U.S. Secret Service agents said Nunez was arrested last Friday, the day Humphrey arrived in the Virgin Islands for a vacation.

A police official said the charge probably will be dropped when Humphrey leaves the islands Nov. 20.

WHY ARE WE
NO. 1

Because it's easy? No!

Blue Cross-Blue Shield, nationally, has nearly 60-million members enrolled, the biggest by far. It includes employee groups of companies that read like an Industrial Who's Who of America: American Telephone & Telegraph, U.S. Steel, General Motors, DuPont, Ford.

The reason is simple: No one can tell how much a hospital-medical bill will be, in advance. Therefore, any dollar limit of benefits you may choose may be far, far too small. Our wonderful hospital-medical people today are saving lives at a rate that is simply fantastic, compared with results only 10 or 15 years ago. It gets most people out of the hospital, on their feet much faster, and back to work.

But all too frequently, the cost of saving a life comes high. And a $5,000 hospital-medical bill with only, say, $500 of insurance, can bankrupt the average family for years.

And that is the simple reason Arkansas Blue Cross and Blue Shield bases benefits on supplying hospital care — the actual services of the hospital. Personalized, you might say, to your own case.

This is why we are No. 1 in size. Because we are No. 1 in what people need.

Colts Manage to Defeat Minnesota

By MURRAY CHASS, Associated Press Sports Writer

Alex Hawkins is the Baltimore Colts' third captain, sixth running back and seventh pass receiver.

He also is a major reason why the Colts are within one victory of gaining the title in the National Football League's Western Conference.

Hawkins, filling in for injured end Raymond Berry, made a diving catch of a 26-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Unitas that boosted the Colts to a 17-14 victory over Minnesota Sunday.

The Colts ninth straight triumph gave them a virtually insurmountable 3 1/2-game lead over Detroit and Los Angeles, which both lost. They now have four games in which to win one that will make them conference champions for the first time since 1958.

Hawkins, in his fifth season, is one of the most valuable utility men in the league. He plays where he is needed — behind five other runners and six other pass receivers — but his primary job is heading the special teams — the kicking and receiving units.

In that position, he joins quarterback Unitas and defensive end Gino Marchetti as Baltimore's captains.

But in his position of end Sunday, he caught only his second pass of the season and scored his first touchdown since 1962.

The 6-foot-1, 188-pound veteran entered the game on offense a short while before he was called on for the winning catch.

It came with six minutes left and Baltimore trailing 14-10.

The touchdown was the 15th of Hawkins' career, putting him slightly behind Jimmy Brown, who has 103. Brown scored two touchdowns in Cleveland's 37-21 victory over Detroit.

In other games, Chicago stopped Los Angeles 34-24, New York tied St. Louis 10-10, San Francisco upset Green Bay 24-14, Philadelphia edged Dallas 17-14 and Washington, walloped Pittsburgh 30-0.

The Colts broke a scoreless tie with Lou Michaels' 35-yard field goal and Unitas' 74-yard touchdown pass to Lenny Moore in the third quarter. Moore's score marked the 13th consecutive game in which he has gone across with a touchdown.

Minnesota, however, came back with two touchdowns, Fran Tarkenton's 16-yard aerial to Hal Bedsole and Tommy Mason's 21-yard run.

Brown's scoring smashes of six and two yards placed him only two behind Don Hutson's all-time record for total touchdowns. Lou Groza added field goals of 38, 47 and 36 yards to the Browns' victory that shot them 2 1/2 games in front in the Eastern Conference.

The number of broken legs, per capita, decreases with age but "maybe older people are just more cautious skiers," Anderson said.

Confidence of Business Feeds on Self

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Recently growing business confidence is now feeding on itself. Even the dangers that some observers glimpse on distant horizons are paradoxically promising a faster economy in the weeks and months just ahead.

These are signs that inflationary psychology may be starting at last to build up; a flood of new orders that point to a growth in inventories after long stability; plans to increase spending for new plants and equipment; blossoming of consumer optimism through talk that recessions are things of the past; shrinkage of excess production facilities that long have provided strong competitive forces.

Alone or in combination, these could cause trouble some months from now by bringing on excesses that would destroy the current business upswing.

But in the immediate future each holds promise of pushing the economy to still loftier levels.

Inflation psychology usually leads industrial purchasing agents to advance their timetables to beat expected price rises, and thus they spur tomorrow's production schedules of suppliers. Inflation also fires labor's demands for more pay and generally means rising personal incomes. It feeds management's desire to raise prices to protect future profits from increasing costs, so dollar sales figures expand. Consumers also usually cut down on saving and spend more when inflation is in the air, and merchants and purveyors of services seem more prosperous.

The growth in inventories which apparently is starting will mean higher sales totals for producers in the months ahead. The economy will glow. Whether it's a healthy glow will depend on the inventories being passed along in consumer sales. Otherwise, businessmen will start living off these accumulations and stop ordering.

One of the current signs that the economy should keep on growing for a time is that industry is announcing plans to spend more for new plants and equipment. Suppliers will prosper. And the plans are based on confidence that the economy has new heights to climb. But worriers can point out that in the past over expansion has led to idle production facilities.

It is just such a surplus built up in the middle and late 1950s that has supplied a governor to the current 45-month old upturn in the business cycle. It discouraged price increases, because some one else always seemed willing to furnish a product at the old price.

Now the long upturn in sales and production has put most of the once idle facilities to work. Many companies are planning to expand to meet current healthy demand and the prospects of larger markets ahead.

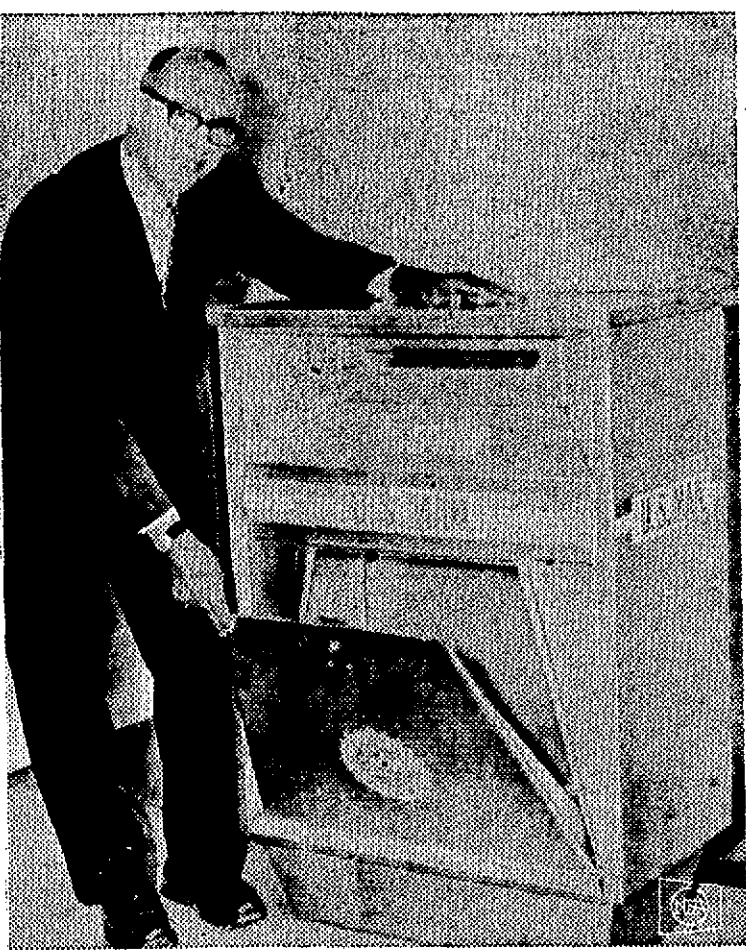

The expansion will help boost the economy this winter and next spring. Some of it will still be going on a year from now.

It makes the immediate future look that much the brighter. And if it builds up future surpluses — and there's no proof that it will — that would still be quite awhile off.

The Story: Blake Meets Trudy Martin, a former girl friend of Richard Emery, who is a suspect in a post office robbery case. He takes her home and makes a date with her for the following night.

VII

I slept late the next morning and went to work without checking in at the office. I followed up on the rest of the checks and money orders. My batting average wasn't any better than it had been the day before. I ended up with identifications of all three photograph.

It was about 6:30 when I returned to the Red Vest. The night bartender was already on duty. There were several people at the bar, but neither Trudy nor Joe was among them. I took a stool at the end of the bar and ordered a martini.

I was working slowly on the second one when Trudy came in. She spotted me as soon as she was inside but pretended she hadn't seen me. I didn't worry about it, for there were only two empty stools at the bar and they were both next to me. She sauntered down the bar and then suddenly put on an act of seeing me.

"Oh hello, Blake," she said. "Hi, Trudy," I said. "Sit down and have a drink."

"All right," she took the stool next to me and I ordered a

Catholic Nuns Popular Music Sensations

By AMAURY MATTOS

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) — Brazil's latest popular music sensation is a group of young Roman Catholic nuns who give a message of faith to a samba beat.

These swinging sisters from the Brazilian order of Missionary Sisters of Jesus Crucified presently are sweeping the nation with lively songs composed by a member of their order and sung by a 14-voice chorus from the order's convent in Rio. The chorus is backed up by a six-piece combo.

The sisters were discovered a year ago by the Rev. Joao Bedochi, well-known in the Brazilian music world for his boys' choir, the "Little Singers of Guanabara."

Father Bedochi heard the sisters singing while he was visiting their convent. Impressed, he went, why don't you ask me?" "All right, Joe," I said. "Where did Dick Emery go?" "I'm going to take you to see him," he said. "Just turn around and start walking. And don't forget what I have in your back."

investigated further and learned that the music was composed by Sister Irene Gomes of the Campinas Convent in Sao Paulo State.

Putting across a message of Christian charity and love to the popular rhythms of the day would be perfectly in accord with the order's goal to work "with one foot in the world and the other in the convent."

Father Bedochi won special permission from Church authorities for the nuns to sing "profane" music in public. Since then they have become one of the most popular guest groups on local television.

A few weeks ago their first record was launched. Rio record shops reported it was one of the fastest moving discs.

The Missionary Sisters is a Brazilian order formed in 1928 by Sister Maria Vilque, today mother superior of the order.

The sisters work in prisons, slums and schools.

To keep the order going financially, the sisters furnish box lunches for some Brazilian airlines, and make and sell candy.

The convent is located on a hillside overlooking Rio. Below is the famous Sugar Loaf Mountain and above them is the equally famous Corcovado with its statue of Christ the Redeemer.

The sisters had been singing for some time under the direction of Sister Maria Duto, music teacher for the order's nov-

Legislative Plans Ahead for Johnson

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is, or soon will be, poring over a batch of special reports he will use in charting the course of his own administration — and the nation — in the years ahead.

From them Johnson intends to draw up the blueprints for his legislative plans that he will hand to Congress in his State of the Union address in January.

The reports are being drafted by almost a score of task forces he assigned weeks ago to such long-standing problems as education, transportation, the urban jumble, care for the elderly, the economy and others.

Many refer one way or another to his version of what he calls the "Great Society," a concept he first discussed publicly last May in a speech at the University of Michigan.

Abundance and liberty for all with an "end to poverty and racial injustice" is just the beat.

The combo is composed of two guitars, an accordion, a triangle, a xylophone and a "cabaça," a rhythm instrument made from a gourd ringed with multi-colored beads.

gining and the places to start to build this "Great Society," he said, are "in our cities, in our countryside and in our classrooms."

Much of his stress was on the turmoil and problems of the growing, overgrown cities — the slum, overcrowded schools, snarled traffic, housing — and he said "in the next 40 years we must rebuild the entire urban United States."

But the solutions, he said, would not come from a massive Washington project but required "new concepts of cooperation — a creative federalism — between the national capital and the leaders of local communities."

So far few details have leaked out about the task forces' progress. One group is reportedly weighing the pros and cons of various tax reduction plans. Another is said to be studying the possibility of hitching Social Security payments to ups and downs in the cost of living.

Much of such social legislation — for aid to education, medical care for the elderly through Social Security, urban affairs, for instance — have hit hard walls of opposition in the past.

Many Republicans and Democratic conservatives have stormed at the hazards of "big government and big spending."

But this time, Johnson has a running start.

His programs stand to receive the warmest reception in Congress of any president's since Franklin D. Roosevelt's in the 1930s. Not only did Johnson win the presidency on his own with a landslide, he has a Congress where the Democrats have a top-heavy majority in the Senate and will rule the House with their biggest majority since the New Deal's high tide in 1938.

And one of the first battles for the new Congress after it convenes in January will be over medical care for the elderly. For years its passage has been blocked in the House.

But this time administration leaders think they'll get it through.

Wreck Injuries Prove Fatal

WEST PLAINS, Mo. (AP) — Lester W. Martin, 40, of Pottsville, Ark., died in a West Plains hospital Sunday of injuries from a Saturday night highway collision.

The Missouri Highway Patrol said Martin was riding with Richard Johnson, 43, of Pottsville, Mo., when Johnson made a left turn off U.S. 160 about six miles southwest of West Plains. The Johnson car was hit broadside by a car driven by Clifford R. Bates, 24, of West Plains.
